

Comparatives and superlatives

Exercise 1

Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first. Use no more than five words including the word in bold.

e.g. Sally's salary is higher than yours.

money

You do not earn as much money as Sally.

1) To Daniel's surprise, learning the rules of English grammar was fairly easy.

tricky

The rules of English grammar weren't _____ Daniel had thought they would be.

2) You should wash your baby's hair a lot more gently if you want to avoid making her cry all the time.

rough

You're far _____ wash your baby's hair, which is why she cries all the time.

3) You need to wait till you're a bit older before you can drive a car on the road legally.

quite

You are _____ drive a car on the road legally.

4) At the wedding, everybody's clothes were more fashionable than mine.

were

At the wedding, the clothes I had _____ anybody else's.

5) I find I need to breathe more heavily the further I run.

out

The further I run, _____ I find I become.

6) Prices in this restaurant are far higher than in the one next door.

lot

The restaurant next door charges _____ one does.