

and Gentle Whispered Prayers. I (14) move _____ back here soon after university, and now I (15) own _____ a small hotel, which I (16) run _____ with my wife; business is good. The traditional farming industry (17) never return _____, I'm sure, but over the last few years this (18) replace _____ in part by smaller 'cottage' farms that (19) exist _____ thanks to the thousands of visitors from all over the world who (20) come _____ each year to see for themselves how beautiful Oakbridge is.

Exercise 3

For each question below, tick the correct sentences. One, two or all three sentences may be correct. There is an example at the start.

e.g. a What did you do yesterday afternoon?

b What were you doing yesterday afternoon?

c What have you done yesterday afternoon?

1) a A new block of flats is being developed near my house.

b A new block of flats has developed near my house.

c A new block of flats is going to be developed near my house.

2) a She'd fed the dog once I arrived.

b She fed the dog as soon as I arrived.

c She was feeding the dog when I'd arrived.

3) a You can't have had lunch with Sue on Saturday; she was with me all day!

b You mustn't have had lunch with Sue on Saturday; she was with me all day!

c You shouldn't have had lunch with Sue on Saturday; she was with me all day!